

FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF SÃO CARLOS

OFFICE OF GRADUATE STUDIES

GRADUATE PROGRAM IN PHYSIOTHERAPY – PPGFt

COURSE CHARACTERIZATION FORM

Graduate Program: Physiotherapy

Course Code: FIT-588

Credits: 1

Course Title: Seminar Series on Current Topics in Physiotherapy

Start of Validity: 2024 – 1st Semester

Justification

This is a newly created course that addresses a wide range of current topics in the field of Physiotherapy. Its purpose is to provide graduate students with updated information and discussions on themes relevant to academic training, professional development, and well-being within the Graduate Program in Physiotherapy.

Course Workload

Theoretical Classes: 12 hours

Practical Classes: 3 hours

Exercises/Seminars: 0 hours

Course Syllabus

- Introduction to the Graduate Program in Physiotherapy at UFSCar (PPGFt)
- Guidance on PPGFt scholarship allocation criteria, types of scholarships, and the role of the Student and Scholarship Monitoring Committee
- Overview of the PPGFt course structure and the importance of Teaching Training in Physiotherapy
- Basic training in Urgent and Emergency Care
- Introduction to the Research Ethics Committee and its importance in research involving human subjects
- The importance of self-care and physiotherapy practices for quality of life and mental health in graduate education

Nature of the Course

Elective course for both Master's and Doctoral programs.

Main Bibliography

Scientific articles in the field of Physiotherapy.

Main Responsible Faculty

Tatiana de Oliveira Sato – Permanent Faculty

Anielle Cristhine de Medeiros Takahashi – Permanent Faculty

Approval

Approved at the 280th Ordinary Meeting of the PPGFt Graduate Program Committee on February 9, 2024.

São Carlos, February 9, 2024.